

MY SAIJIKI (SEASON WORD DICTIONARY)

CIRCLE OR COLOR IN SEASON

WHAT IS A SAIJIKI

Haiku is all about seasons, but the poet doesn't always mention the season directly. They use kigo (season words) that let readers know in what season the poem takes place. For example, when we read of tulips, we know it is springtime. Every country or region has its own weather and kigo. Create a saijiki (season dictionary) here to use when writing your haiku.
